

LILITH: A FEMINIST HISTORY JOURNAL

NUMBER 20, 2014

EDITORIAL

Alana Piper and Ana Stevenson 2

ARTICLES

'Symbols of our Slavery': Fashion and the Rhetoric of Dress Reform in Nineteenth-Century American Print Culture
Ana Stevenson 5

Establishing a Twentieth-Century Women's Profession in Australia:
Jocelyn Hyslop, the Little-Known Story of the Founding Director of Social Work at the University of Melbourne
Jane Miller and David Nichols 21

'For All This We Thank the Führer':
Bio-politics and the Bare Life in A Woman in Berlin: Eight Weeks in the Conquered City. A Diary
Erin Elizabeth Bell 34

Japanese Migrant Women's Transnational Gendered Identity Politics in International Marriages in Australia
Mayuko Itoh 48

Chaperoned into Arnhem Land:
Margaret McArthur and the Politics of Nutrition and Fieldwork in 1948
Amanda Harris 62

The Bleeding Obvious:
Menstrual Ideologies and Technologies in Australia, 1940-1970
Carla Pascoe 76

BOOK REVIEWS

Female Outlaws
Alana Piper 93

New Memories of Women's Liberation
Petra Mosmann 94

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS 97